

THE DUTY ON HIDES

Senators Page of Vermont and
McCumber of Dakota

HAVE A LITTLE DISCUSSION

Duty on Hides Desired by Mr. McCumber—He Declares the Farmer Should Have This Little Protection.

Washington, June 23.—When the Senate met yesterday, Senator Aldrich, on behalf of the finance committee, offered amendments to several paragraphs of the tariff bill which had been previously passed over. They were agreed to by the Senate.

The announcement of a duty of 45 per cent. recommended by the committee and adopted by the Senate on iron and steel glazed with vitreous glass, being an increase of five per cent. over the amount recommended by the house, called Mr. Aldrich to his feet in protest.

Mr. Aldrich explained that the lower duty made the rate of protection less than that already provided on the materials from which the product was made.

Objection was made by Senator Burton to a change in the duty on asphalt. Senator Tillman called attention to the desirability in the interest of the farmers of placing Paris green and London purple on the free list, in connection with arsenic, and upon suggestion of Mr. Aldrich, he proposed an amendment to the free list which includes them.

In defending the proposed 15 per cent. ad valorem duty on hides, Senator McCumber of North Dakota declared that no more striking illustration of ingratitude had been shown by the manufacturers of leather and leather goods who seek to deprive the stockmen and farmers of the little remnant of protection left on hides.

His speech was a plea for the farmer as against the manufacturer. He stated frankly that he wanted a duty of 25 per cent. on hides.

Vermont vs. North Dakota. A little boasting of the relative amount of devotion to Republican politics on the part of North Dakota and Vermont ushered in a trite colloquy between Senators McCumber and Page. The Vermont senator thought his state was a little more simon-pure Republican than was North Dakota, and testified Mr. McCumber with the suggestion that North Dakota had elected a Democratic governor two years ago.

"Oh, yes," responded Mr. McCumber, with evident reference to the distribution of protective duties, "the state of Vermont has a little more to encourage her devotion to the Republican party."

Senator Clark of Wyoming, interrupting, declared that Mr. Page, in advocating free hides "wanted the government to go into partnership with the leather trust to beat the beef trust, and all at the expense of the farmers."

When Mr. McCumber closed his remarks Senator McLaughlin renewed his efforts in behalf of a duty on small hides. He contended that without reference to the rate of duty the small hides should be placed on the same footing as the large, pointing out that there had been an arbitrary ruling putting on the free list hides weighing less than 25 pounds.

He declared that from 1895 to 1907, inclusive, the government had lost more than $16,000,000 by this failure to collect the duty on the smaller hides.

The Corporation Tax Bill. Attorney-General Wickham yesterday laid before the president and his cabinet a rough draft of the tariff bill amendment which provides for the imposition of a two per cent. tax upon the net earnings of corporations.

A conference, it is said, is to be held at the White House tonight, at which all the Republican members of the Senate finance committee will be present, together with Attorney-General Wickham and Senator Root.

There seems little doubt now that the amendment, as it will be turned over to the finance committee, will provide for a two per cent. tax and it will exempt net earnings below $5,000.

CENSUS BILL TO CONFERENCE. House Returns After Accepting One of the Amendments.

Washington, June 23.—Availing themselves of the presence of a quorum, the leaders of the House Monday obtained action upon several important matters of legislation. Principal among these was the conference report on the bill providing for taking the thirteenth census. With respect to that measure the debate hinged on the Senate amendment requiring that applicants for appointment must take the examinations in the state or territory in which they profess to live and that they must have had at least one year's actual domicile there in previous to such examination. The amendment was concurred in, but all other amendments were disagreed to and the bill was again sent to conference.

HARK TO THE VOICES OF 'SUNNY JIM' How Our Honorable Vice-president Is Impressed by Tariff Rhetoric.

Washington, June 23.—What Vice-president Sherman thinks of all this debate and discussion over tariff may be judged from what members of the press gallery who have good eyesight saw on "Sunny Jim's" desk yesterday.

Senator Root of New York was in the chair. By the side of a copy of the tariff bill lay a sheet of paper containing the names of those senators billed to speak on hides. This read: "McCumber, McLaughlin, Gamble, Burton, Owen."

Below that were the terse, but expressive words: "Oh, hell."

TWO HOUSES IN BRANDON ENTERED

Three Men Arrested as The Burglars—Only Boys of 18 and 19—Said They Came to Vermont to Look

For Work.

Brandon, July 31.—The inhabitants of the Arnold district were excited Monday afternoon when they found out that two houses had been broken into during the absence of the owners. The authorities were notified and despatched in the arrest of three young men who gave their names as Henry Van Winkle, aged 19, Harold Baldwin, age 19, and James Manning, age 18, all from Glens Falls, N. Y. The boys said they came to Vermont to look for work and were in Proctor.

The house of Mrs. Emma June was first entered, Mrs. June being in the village. They entered by removing a window frame. Several small articles were taken, and also some jewelry. They spilled a sack of flour and a bag of coffee over the floor, stamping it into the carpet, and ransacked everything in the house. The boys then went to the house of Flavius St. Pierre gaining an entrance by cutting out the lower half of the screen door. There was some change on the writing desk which was less than $1.00 which they took.

A neighbor happened to see them who spread the alarm, the boys running towards Leicester Junction. Constable W. C. Fletcher of this place was notified and started for the Arnold district with Policeman W. H. Sisco. In the meantime, Constable Carl Williams of Leicester was notified and he had them arrested before the Brandon officers arrived. The prisoners were then brought to Brandon where they were placed in the lockup.

BEGINNING MADE.

First Spade of Earth for the Cape Cod Canal.

Sandwich, Mass., June 23.—In turning up a spadeful of earth at Bournehead, half way across Cape Cod, yesterday, August Belmont of New York declared that a formal beginning had been made in the construction of the long looked for Cape Cod canal and said it would surely be pushed through to completion.

Beside Mr. Belmont, who is president of the holding company, which is financing the work, stood former Secretary of State Robert Bacon, looked upon as a great grandfather. Commodore Oliver Hazard Perry, the hero of Lake Erie, lived for some years.

Later, the party, which came down here on a special car, viewed the dumping of granite of the Sandwich shore for the construction of the protecting breakwater to the northeastern entrance to the canal.

In the afternoon, the party also inspected the Buzzards Bay approaches to the canal.

LIBEL TESTIMONY ABROAD.

Wise Going to France in Panama Case.

New York, June 23.—Henry A. Wise, United States attorney, will sail for Europe on June 30 to be present at the examination of witnesses at Paris in the Panama Canal purchase libel case by John D. Lindsay, of counsel for the Press Publishing company, publishers of The World, which has been indicted for articles regarding the canal negotiations, printed in October. Mr. Lindsay will sail the following Saturday, possibly on the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse. DeLany, Nicoll, senior counsel for the Press Publishing company, will sail on the Lusitania on June 30, and will be present at the taking of the depositions. Mr. Wise will take depositions of his own, and the counsel for the defendant will be present at the examination of his witnesses. The United States attorney received an order from the United States circuit court a month ago to go to Paris and to look over the records of the old company.

Mr. Wise had been determined to try the case against the publishers of The World and Caleb M. Van Hamm, the managing editor, who was also indicted, before the summer vacation, but Mr. Nicoll pleaded for delay in order to get the evidence of material witnesses in Paris and to look over the records of the old company.

Mr. Wise will have access to the papers of the old company, it was said yesterday, as a representative of the United States court. These papers, it is understood, are kept by the French courts, but the French government, according to counsel interested in the case, has volunteered to give every facility to Mr. Wise and the other lawyers that will aid them in their investigation.

SHOT WIFE DEAD.

Pangborn Committed Murder as Daughter Looked on.

Cassopolis, Mich., June 23.—Stephen S. Pangborn shot his wife five times and killed her at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Leon Crisell, late last night. His wife left him about three weeks ago. When Pangborn went to the house his daughter refused him admission until Mrs. Pangborn said: "Let him in, I am through with him and we may as well have it out now as ever."

"Through with me, are you?" he said, and pulled a revolver and fired, shooting her through the body near the heart. She died almost instantly.

Sheriff Rutter went to the house and found Pangborn lying across his wife's body, with one arm around her neck. He was forcibly dragged from the house and taken to jail.

ROBINSON MUST STAND TRIAL.

The Demurrer in the Heinz Case Is Overruled.

New York, June 23.—The demurrer to the indictment charging Sanford Robinson, attorney for Arthur R. Heinz, with impeding and obstructing the administration of justice was overruled by Judge Ray in the United States circuit court yesterday. Counsel for Robinson had contended that his client was justified in disregarding service of papers by a deputy United States marshal, inasmuch as only a marshal had authority in the matter. The court's decision, however, places deputy marshals on the same footing as marshals. Robinson was indicted together with Arthur R. Heinz, F. A. Heinz, Charles Wardell, vice-president of the Ohio Copper company, and Calvin O. Geer, a clerk in the office of the United Copper company, for preventing a deputy marshal from serving a subpoena on Tracy S. Buckingham, a clerk in the employ of the United Copper company, and arranging for his departure from Canada.

Buffalo, N. Y., June 23.—The American Envelope Manufacturing association before adjourning last evening to meet again in New York during the summer, adopted resolutions protesting against the United States government entering into competition with its citizens and taxpayers by use of the postal service for free advertising, free delivery and free printing of envelopes.

ASTHMA AND HAY FEVER WILL VANISH

Everybody knows that Hyomei cures catarrh. But there are many sufferers from asthma and hay fever who don't know that Hyomei will give them instant relief and if used regularly permanent cure.

But The Red Cross Pharmacy knows so well what Hyomei will do that they guarantee it to cure catarrh, hay fever and asthma.

Surely it's worth a trial on that basis and why people continue to choke and wheeze and spit and hawk and snuffle when a cure is at hand is beyond the comprehension of human intelligence.

When you breathe Hyomei deep into your lungs you breathe exactly the same pleasant antiseptic balmy air that you would breathe in the forests of pine and eucalyptus of India or Australia.

"Doctoring and remedies never helped my hay fever, till I used Hyomei. It gave me great relief, and has my endorsement."—Louis A. Grobe, Flint, Mich.

Complete Hyomei outfit is only $1.00, and bottles 50 cents. Hyomei consists of a bottle of Hyomei, a hard rubber inhaler, medicine dropper and full instructions for use. Just breathe it in and get immediate relief.

IN FREE-FOR-ALL FIGHT.

100 Negroes and Tunnel Men in Big Scrap.

New York, June 23.—In a riot of about 100 negroes and Pennsylvania tunnel laborers at 7th avenue and 30th streets early yesterday Andrew Barber, 26, of 301 West 36th street, a bystander, was shot and cut and a score or more others received minor injuries. It was a free-for-all fight until the reserves from the West 30th street police station scattered the fighters with their night sticks.

The trouble seems to have started in Bob Nelson's saloon at 30th street and 7th avenue shortly after 1 o'clock. A negro jostled another man and the fight was on in a second, going at full swing. Tom Nolan, a bartender, jumped into the fray with a billy he keeps handy for such emergencies and rushed the crowd into the street.

The negroes shouted for reinforcements and the white laborers hurried to the works and got more men, picks and shovels. Both crowds fought with all kinds of weapons, but seemed to do little damage. A shot fired by a negro named Peter Jackson, however, hit Barber, who is an Armenian laborer, and at once a crowd attacked him and he was badly cut and bruised.

The wounded man was removed to the hospital. Jackson and two other negroes were placed under arrest.

NEGRO MUST WANT MORE.

Education Needed For This, Says Washington.

Norfolk, June 23.—That the educated negro of today has no idea of social equality was asserted here yesterday by Booker T. Washington of Tuskegee, before a large audience. He said that those who are in touch with the race and its needs know that all that is needed to accomplish its salvation is education, not in the confined sense of the term, but in its broadest meaning. "Education" said Dr. Washington, "increases the wants of the negro and in just this proportion will he work to attain his desires for good clothes, for a home and a bank account. The idle, shiftless negro, ignorant, has his wants easily supplied, and will work just long enough to secure money sufficient to supply his needs." But, he contended, "the negro properly educated, wants some of the good things of life and will work to secure them."

NEED OF MORE LIFE GUARDS.

Demonstrated By 621 Drownings in May.

New York, June 23.—In his analysis of the total reported deaths for May, 1908, by drowning in the tide and inland waters of the country, Superintendent Longhouse of the United States Volunteer Life Saving Corps, makes a plea for the extension of the service to all interior cities touched by canals or rivers bordering on lakes. The figures show, he says, that out of 621 deaths in all, 155 were of children, and that canals figure largely in the list of determining causes. New York city, with its long water front and its huge population, lost fewer lives than the remainder of New York. All of New England lost fewer than New York state alone. Pennsylvania, with a loss of 100, had the largest total, and Delaware, with none, the smallest.

MAY STRIKE IN PITTSBURG.

The Railway Given Six Days to Make Concessions.

Pittsburg, June 23.—By a vote of 1,978 to 6, the employees of the Pittsburg Railways company, at meetings held late Monday night and early yesterday, decided to give the company six days in which to adjust differences alleged to be inimical to the motormen and conductors. If the company fails to act within that time, it is said, a general strike will be declared in this city next Sunday morning. Every effort is being made to communicate with James D. Callery, president of the company, who is reported to be in Hawaii.

DIAB LIBEL CASE DELAYED.

The President Is a Witness Against Fornaro.

New York, June 23.—The trial of Carlo de Fornaro, formerly employed on a New York newspaper as an artist, and author of the book entitled, "Diaz, the Car of Mexico," on a charge of criminal libel preferred by Rafael Reyes Espinola, ex-adjutant general of Mexico City, was yesterday adjourned until October 30. The defense will then be ready to submit the testimony of necessary witnesses in Mexico, including that of President Diaz.

State to Be Invaded.

Boston, June 23.—Massachusetts will be attacked and defended in the army manoeuvres next August by a force of 15,000 men, including the regular army and the militia of this state, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, and the District of Columbia, according to the announcement from the adjutant general's department yesterday. The movements involve an attack upon the state and a defense against invasion. Artillery and cavalry will be equal on both sides. The manoeuvres will begin on August 4.

Knew The Bad Places.

A gentleman in an address to a graduating class, told the following story of the president of an ocean steamship company, who was taking a journey across the water. When the ship was in a dangerous channel he became engaged in conversation with the pilot, an elderly man, who had spent most of his life on the water. The president of the company remarked: "I suppose you know all about the dangerous places in this channel?" "Nope," replied the pilot, "I've not death!" exclaimed the president. "Then why are you in charge of that wheel?" "Because I know where the bad places ain't!"—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

A Very Simple Detective Case

By BERTHA DALBOP.
(Copyright, 1908, by American Press Association.)

"Waiter, call a cab."

So spoke Walter De Forest while sitting in the cafe of his club. In a few minutes the waiter announced that the cab was at the door. De Forest went out, gave a street and number to the cabman and got into the cab. There, before him on the seat, lay a package.

"Ah," exclaimed De Forest, "some one has lost something."

Taking up the package, he opened it and saw on the top a bank bill for $1,000. He opened his eyes very wide. Lifting the bill, he came upon another for the same amount. He opened his eyes wider. Fifty bills, each for $1,000, were in the parcel.

He looked at the wrapper. There was neither name nor mark on it to give the slightest clue to its ownership. He tied up the package and put it in his pocket. On reaching his destination he said to the driver:

"Who was the last person in this cab before me?"</
